

GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE JUDICIARY

Judicial School
Continuous Training

TRANSITIONAL JUSTICE, VICTIMS AND HUMAN RIGHTS MEANING AND SCOPE OF THE RIGHT TO MEMORY

Code: CU18081

Dates: 18 to 20 June 2018

Directors: Mr Juan José López Ortega

President of Section 4 of the Provincial Court of Madrid, ex member of the UN Committee on Enforced Disappearances

Mr José Manuel Rodríguez Uribes

Director of the Bartolomé de las Casas Human Rights Institute Carlos III University in Madrid. Director General of Support for Victims of Terrorism in the Spanish Government (2005-2011)

Technical Director: María Luisa Roldán García

Judge, Director of the Continuous Training Department.

Place: Continuous Training Service. Judicial School of Madrid
(Calle Trafalgar nº 27)

PROGRAMME

Monday, 18 June

Morning

10:45 Registration and delivery of documentation

11:00 Keys to the construction of a right to memory

Speaker: Mr Juan José López Ortega

President of Section 4 of the Provincial Court of Madrid, ex member of the UN Committee on Enforced Disappearances

GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE JUDICIARY

Judicial School
Continuous Training

12:00 The right to the truth: the emergence of a new right in ECHR case law

Speaker: Mr Luis López Guerra

Senior Professor of Constitutional Law at the Carlos III University of Madrid, and former ECHR Judge.

13:00 The right of victims to know the fate and whereabouts of their relatives and close ones

Speaker: Ms Elisenda Calvet Martínez

Professor of International Law at the University of Barcelona

Afternoon

16:00 Round table: The recovery of memory as a collective right

Speakers: Mr Fernando Martínez López

Senior Professor of Contemporary History.
University of Almeria

Ms Alicia Alted Vigil

Senior Professor of Contemporary History. UNED-
National Distance Education University

18:30 End of activities.

Tuesday, 19 June

Morning

09:00 Elements for constructing a right to memory

Victims of the civil war and Francoism in recommendations from United Nations bodies

Speaker: Mr Carlos Fernández Liesa

Senior Professor of Public International Law Carlos III University in Madrid.

Reparation policies for victims of the civil war and Francoism

Speaker: Rafael Escudero Alday

Tenured Professor of Philosophy of Law at the Carlos III University of Madrid.

GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE JUDICIARY

Judicial School
Continuous Training

11:30 Break.

12:00 Judging history?

Contributions for the construction of a right to the truth in Inter-American Court case law

Speaker: Ms Amaya de Úbeda de Torres

Legal Officer at the Venice Commission. Council of Europe.

The crimes of the civil war before the ECHR

Speaker: Ms Carmen Pérez González

Tenured Professor of Public International Law. Carlos III University in Madrid.

Afternoon

16:00 Round table: Transition processes in Eastern Europe and Latin America

Transition processes in Eastern Europe

Speaker: Ms Carmen González de Enríquez

Senior Professor of Political Science at the UNED-National Distance Education University

The peace process in Colombia

Speaker: Mr Félix Vacas Fernández

Tenured Professor of International Law. Carlos III University in Madrid.

Wednesday, 20 June

Morning

10:00 Round table: Reflections on the chiaroscuros of the Transition

Speakers: Mr José Álvarez Junco

Professor emeritus of the History of Thought and Political and Social Movements at the Complutense University of Madrid.

GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE JUDICIARY

Judicial School
Continuous Training

Mr Santos Juliá Díaz

Senior Professor of Social History and Political Thought at the UNED-National Distance Education University

Ms Amelia Valcárcel

Senior Professor of Moral Philosophy and Politics. UNED-National Distance Education University

Mr Eusebio Fernández García

Senior Professor of Philosophy of Law at the Carlos III University of Madrid.

Mr José Manuel Rodríguez Uribe

Tenured Professor of Philosophy of Law, ex director of support for victims of terrorism in the Spanish Government.

13:30 End of activities.